TB
NO. CV2016-422W

RESPONDENT'S OBJECTION, REJECTION, CONDEMNATION, AND REBUKE OF ORDER OF GUARDIAN AD LITEM

Comes now before the court Matthew Reardon, the respondent, and respectfully moves this court for relief from the Judgement in cause number CV2016-422W. Respondent would show just cause through the following extenuating circumstances and reasons listed that movant is most definitely entitled to relief:

Movant begins by posing this question before the court that based on the same rationale this court has judged respondent and the controversial way it has chosen to rule on matters concerning this caring father's right to visitation with his minor child, can this court prove beyond the doubt that exists that it is not complicit in the ongoing fraud continuing to occur? There is but one party whom is obnoxiously in contempt of this courts order and that is the petitioner whom brought this false and frivolous claim for two matters in particular, the first being to manipulate a desirable outcome in a prior proceeding in Olive Branch, MS in which she was defending against the charge brought by Olive Branch Police Department for the commission of filing a false report of rape against Movant in November of 2018 which had it's final disposition in November of 2020. The second reason Petitioner brought this false and frivolous petition was by way of retaliation on movant due to her being charged for the commission of a sickening crime in which she had conspired with her present husband and admitted to via a recorded phone call. All this stemming after petitioner failed in her attempt to have movant falsely framed for the absolutely sickening crime of molestation 1-Year prior in a completely obnoxious and undeserving attempt to rid the father of her child from her child's life through complete lies and manipulation of the legal system. Sadly this court is choosing to feed directly into it despite all clear evidence that movant has continued to assert, which this court would have had knowledge of had it actually read movant's petition, motions, and responses filed with this court. How this court has not seen straight through these lies perpetuated is beyond astonishment. Once again, movant would pose a commonsense question to this court seeking answer from it. If Petitioner had any type of valid, truthful claim, why would Department of Child Services have closed out her report as untrue/unfounded? Why would law enforcement have not made contact with movant or filed criminal charges movant when it was reported if there was any credibility to her report? Finally, and most of all, WHY did petitioner go in gross, willful contempt of this court's standing visitation order from January of 2020 while movant and his spouse were at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital tending care to their newborn child until the time the petition was filed with this court by petitioner's attorney, nearly 9 months later? On what grounds would any court find that acceptable in the slightest bit? Movant would insist upon standing trial before a jury of his peers in order to allow movant the ability to seek additional relief and damages if this court is actually willing to further entertain this nonsense brought forth by Petitioner. Movant finds this highly prejudicial and constitutionally offensive that such horrid lies continue to be asserted by petitioner and she continues to get away with it unscathed despite movant being the one to truly suffer, while law enforcement and the courts toss care to the wind further enabling it. Movant is in the process of locating and uploading every single recorded call he has with petitioner to demonstrate that petitioner has acted with ill intent since day one wrongfully and without cause initiating false and undeserving complaints and petitions, showing a continuous pattern of criminal behavior and clear mental issues that have continuously gone unchecked and even protected by the legal system. Petitioner has continued to “bite the hand that feeds her” through her perpetuation of libelous, defaming, and dangerous lies that are now clearly insistent upon federal intervention to halt and deter due to state agencies and state courts fully enabling and condoning it, and in doing such have severely and irreparably aggrieved some of the most significant of injuries upon movant. Movant hereby, yet again, puts Lafayette county and the state of Mississippi on official notice of it’s grievous violations of not only Its own state constitution and laws, but Federal Law through it’s intentional violations of 42 USC 1985, 42 USC 1983, and flagrant denial of the equal protections under State and Federal Laws to the Movant. Even more concerning is the fact that these violations have been cited and raised by Movant prior to include the same criminal conduct involving knowingly false accusations alleged by the petitioner in this cause over the last three and a half years. It is blatantly clear to see the end goal is exactly what Movant has asserted since May of 2017. That Movant’s child has been USED as a manipulation tool by her mother, her attorney/attorneys, Lafayette County, and most certainly Chancery Court and Circuit Court In order to steer and manipulate a desirable outcome which benefits the county and the minor child’s mother, and fully deprives Movant, a Marine Corps Veteran, of his civil rights along with his due process rights, which have risen beyond that of a civil matter to the level of criminal conduct by ways of criminal conspiracy. Movant has continuously provided notice and sought out protections by Agencies and this court which have neglectfully gone unheard, unnoticed, and have not been acted upon despite undeniable evidence to back all claims. Movant completely objects, rejects, condemns, and rebukes the actions of the responsible parties and this court to the highest degree for flat out refusing to assess, read, and respond to any of the motions and evidence brought forward by the Movant which makes clear that the petitioner is in direct violation of perjury, criminal conspiracy, and worse. Every single time Movant has been denied the presumption of innocence and in fact has had to produce surrender his personal freedoms, liberties, and privacy to prove his complete innocence, and each time the truly guilty party/parties have been fully enabled by Movant not receiving any justice due to him at the malice hands of his false accuser to include the most recent matter in Olive Branch where petitioner conspired with her husband to falsely accuse Movant of rape. Movant showed proof of this and Olive Branch insisted on downloading Movants phone in order to obtain concrete proof of petitioner's guilt along with movants innocence in order to prosecute her, only for Petitioner to not receive any type of true punishment that would serve as a deterrent, and in fact the punishment (a fine) only stood to yield the city of Olive Branch financial gain at the continued harm of Movant and this particular matter would prove just that.

Movant moves this Chancery Judge to recuse himself from this cause due to clear bias shown favoring petitioner despite not one single piece of evidence in a knowingly false assertion where Movant has provided continued proof as well as common sense should easily show. Movant reasserts his right to live his life free of harassment and intrusion by the state whom has continued to aggrieve more injuries upon the Movant and condoned the initiation of false legal proceedings with the intention of harassing and delaying other ongoing legal proceedings. Movant hereby introduces all Facebook Messages between Movant and Petitioner's attorney in the Olive Branch Matter, Christi McCoy into evidence as EXHIBIT A. Movant hereby introduces all court records from the Olive Branch matter as EXHIBIT B which would go to substantiating such claim that this proceeding stemmed by way of padding the result of the prior matter. Petitioner's attorney, Mona Pittman, whom allegedly was hired as co-counsel in the Olive Branch never made the first appearance in that matter. It is the completely confident position of Movant that the sole reason she even "came on board" in the other matter was to delay that proceeding and further to file this proceeding in order to "rig" a preferable outcome.

While Movant can't confirm with 100% confidence that petitioner's attorney lied about her "COVID-19" exposure which she used to delay the initially set hearing in this cause, it should be alarming to this court that she used that excuse to delay both legal matters on two totally separate spans of time within a short period. As a side note, movant questions why anyone would choose to go to New York to "Quarantine" with New York having one of the highest COVID-19 infection rates. Movant has been completely truthful with this court and all courts for that matter and it is completely offensive to Movant that this court wants to insist on once again violating Movants rights to privacy, and states this order is unlawful through extorting movant's right to his child whom he has fully supported in order to further violate movants rights, paving way to 4th Amendment violations by way of an unjustified and undeserving order, and all because the state refuses to properly punish and deter the petitioner due to it having a greater interest in "Hanging" the Movant. A Guardian Ad Litem is not warranted in this cause to prove what should be clearly evident to this court, that the petitioner lied and is in intentional violation of Perjury through affidavits filed. Movant has complied with everything asked of him up to now, but enough is enough when it comes to the personal freedoms and liberties of Movant being continuously attacked by the same county that has not shown the slightest care or remorse for Movants Civil/Constitutional Rights that he swore a lifelong oath to his country, not his state and not his county, to protect and defend. The fact that this court is buying into the clear blasphemous lies brought forward by the petitioner and her attorney without so much as a shred of evidence produced by either makes it abundantly clear the near impossibility for Movant to receive a fair hearing in Lafayette County, whom sent millions of splinters through the surrounding areas based on completely false statements and allegations which the county, the petitioner, and her attorney are directly responsible for. Movant hereby would insist that this court schedule a show cause hearing immediately to properly punish the perjurious party being that sworn affidavits have been given to prevent further intentional violations of movants civil rights, freedoms, and liberties which Movant asserts have come under attack prior to proceeding any further and aggrieving further intentional injuries. Otherwise, Movant stands willing and ready to immediately escalate this matter up to the highest courts necessary in order to challenge it on constitutionality grounds, block it, and seek any and all relief possible. This order as it stands amounts to nothing less than a complete decimation of movants rights, systemic kidnapping, and shows all signs of collusion at the helping hands of Lafayette County and The State of Mississippi, further opening the door and leading way to the county and the state illegally obtaining information from Movant by way of unlawful search and seizure and under false pretenses.

Movant insists upon a show cause hearing at the soonest possible date and time prior to the scheduled hearing January 28th, and for it to stay the order entered 12/17/2020 until such time that a hearing be heard

Respectfully Submitted, Attested, and Sworn to under penalty of Perjury this 28th Day of December 2020

Ok. Thanks for letting me know. I've been told by quite a few that you would be the perfect attorney for my case and lawsuit, but we both know that would be too much of a conflict of interest especially if you didn't withdraw

Jun 25, 2020, 1:33 PM

Christi McCoy

You can now call each other and see information like Active Status and when you've read messages.

I did not withdraw.

Jun 25, 2020, 1:31 PM

Matthew Reardon

I heard you may have been withdrawing as counsel. Did you in fact withdraw as counsel for Liz?

Well she will be 6 in August

Matthew Reardon

Christi, if this is part of your client's strategy to somehow strengthen her case some way unbeknownst to me then I'd love to know from a respect standpoint. But are you aware that she has not allowed me to see or speak to my 6 year old child in over 5 months? Despite her being paid 600 a month in child support. The only reason she hasn't been hauled into court yet for gross contempt of a visitation order is that rural legal can't represent me because of the conflict of interest and I can't afford not hire an attorney to do it at the moment due to my residual income dipping while she skims around half of it off the top, my costs of discovery, and my time crunch to file everything plus the amount of work that takes in my state case and everything with the outlaw which just so happens to be part of everything with the evidence collected from it. Not to mention her telling the sheriff's department that cps said not to let me see Lydia when I had a deputy make a welfare check, which cps of course categorically denies. Conversations with the Joey easy and cps of course were recorded for proof as well as a police report made. Doesn't sound like much of a victim to me with everything else not to mention the fake molestation claim she attempted to make a year prior in the first plot to remove me permanently from Lydia's life. Doesn't sound much like a victim at all to have a victim rights attorney

Matthew Reardon

Thank you Christi

Jun 25, 2020, 2:06 PM

Been there, done that. FOIA with state/local agencies is almost a joke. Feds are a bit better but it takes forever.

Good luck. I am not a fan of censoring and failure to be transparent when it comes to government agencies.

Jun 25, 2020, 1:41 PM

Matthew Reardon

Roger that. I'll likely be filing it pro se in the northern district of fed court. Have to file a post conviction relief first next week, then follow that up next week with filing in district court to stay the statute of limitations. Two months of discovery has produced unsurpassed amounts of evidence and a long list of defendants. So much obstruction of justice and refusal to cooperate with FOIA from LCSO and the FBI. Complete refusal

Jun 25, 2020, 1:39 PM

Christi McCoy

You are welcome. And I appreciate that! You need someone not in Oxford. Maybe not even in the immediate area. Jim Wade in Tupelo. Shame McCloughlin also in Tupelo.

But you may want to get an attorney who is not in this jurisdiction.

You see the trailer to everything?

Jun 27, 2020, 4:55 PM

Matthew Reardon

I certainly am and that was the route I was going was taking similar cases to reference. A legal complaint of the same type in order to frame the outline. Then fill it in with Riding With The Outlaw. Now I have a court filing in state court for a PCR AND a court filing for District Court (fed) to file the next week as well. The Fed filing I'll continue pushing off until the pct is completed. Then I have the exoneration at the state court to further solidify my federal claim as well as completely destroying their covenant to not sue. And what's really awesome is that I get a documentary and a book to be published, not to mention any and every dollar I can fetch for the way these people caused permanent damages not to mention punitive to really satisfy the way these people made it so personal to me

Jun 27, 2020, 4:52 PM

Christi McCoy

I don't know the Lynchses and didn't even know that was going on. I do not get out and about in the Oxford scene. I know a lot of the players simply because I have worked in the legal system. I thought you were filing a suit for damages. You are filing a PCR, right? There are some lawyers who might help with that. Actually - the best PCR writer I ever knew was a writ writer in prison. He has been out for years. His last name was Young. I think. Unsolicited advice - get copies of as many similar motions as you can and study those.

Jun 27, 2020, 4:14 PM

Matthew Reardon

Agreed. And see that's the huge hypocrisy I am attacking the system on. I am putting together a documentary from all the footage I have gathered and writing a book. This was the most corrupt quid pro quo public corruption scandal To rock the state of Mississipi in my own personal opinion. It's honestly got project mockingbird written all over it. And a huge huge Michael Flynn similarity

Jun 27, 2020, 4:04 PM

Christi McCoy

I am still watching and reading. You have a LOT of info on there. I did not follow the incident - honestly didn't know a thing about it until recently. I know that I have filed FOIAs that have taken years to get answered. But last year I filed one and actually got the right turnaround. Federal, not state.

Jun 27, 2020, 4:02 PM

Christi McCoy

the thing is though... there are tons of trial attorneys who are willing to take on the case for free... litigants at legal clinics get that benefit. But again, there isn't a big push here for helping indigent litigants.

Jun 27, 2020, 4:00 PM

Matthew Reardon

Okay. Thank you for that. I just take the position of I shouldn't have to bear the cost upfront of a filing fee and I shouldn't have to when I fulfilled my end and she gets a huge chunk of my residual income. So what do you think about everything gathered on riding with the outlaw? Have to take care of everything this week

Jun 27, 2020, 3:56 PM

Christi McCoy

You might check with the clerk and see if there are any legal clinics happening in chancery here. I know there was one set before the pandemic. The Tupelo area has started having their again - check with Sherry Wall's office and see if that is an option.

Jun 27, 2020, 3:07 PM

Christi McCoy

If I have to withdraw it isn't related to her status as a victim or not. It is related to our grant and the parameters of where we can serve.

Jun 27, 2020, 3:01 PM

Matthew Reardon

Jun 27, 2020, 3:00 PM

Christi McCoy

The reason NMRLS cannot represent you has nothing to do with my representing Ms. Crowder.

Jun 27, 2020, 2:59 PM

Christi McCoy

I am not involved in any action involving your child.

Christi McCoy

I saw your post about the call. Have they denied you access to the info or they just haven't responded at all?

Jun 27, 2020, 5:16 PM

Christi McCoy

I can clear one thing up because I noticed this when I was looking at your documents - the action was filed in chancery. There is a "drop down" list on the civil cover sheet for chancery/circuit. Whoever was filling it out didn't click the right drop down selection. But it was filed in chancery. It was assigned a chancery judge and a chancery number. That is just a clerical error.

Jun 27, 2020, 5:15 PM

Matthew Reardon

Coincidentally around that time the sheriff's department received a call which Jarrett Burdren took. This call ultimately led to the warrant. And it's this call I need to show literally every single element in this devised sinister plot to frame me

Jun 27, 2020, 5:06 PM

Matthew Reardon

The 24th two days later when Mona didn't get a favorable test result for Liz, she initiated a chancery court civil action within 7 minutes of my drug test results which weren't even as bad as Liz's

Jun 27, 2020, 5:05 PM

Matthew Reardon

So may 22nd Rhea starts a civil action in CIRCUIT court for an injunction. We both know that's not to be done in circuit court unless it's an on going circuit court case. But it wasn't. The next day I'm pulled over and served it

Jun 27, 2020, 5:03 PM

Matthew Reardon

So when they decided they needed to get me out of the picture so that information that could pose a political fallout, not to mention I was listed on the board minutes to address the board on the same day coincidentally of the election June 6th

Matthew Reardon

Jun 27, 2020, 5:01 PM

Rhea represented Liz in 2006 when Lydia was held from me for about two months. It's been a game of cat and mouse with me vs him for years prior and we were about even

Jun 27, 2020, 5:00 PM

Matthew Reardon

Come to find out Mona worked in the basement of Rhea's building

Jun 27, 2020, 4:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

Mona Pitman represented Liz in 2017 with the two conjured up take restraining orders put on me to try to deamornize me and take full custody with no visitation of Lydia. Oddly enough, both restraining orders were filed not only on the same two days I got false arrested from the county but in the same hour of my arrests

Jun 27, 2020, 4:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

Neither were valid. And they were coerced under stress of providing for and being there for my child. Certified by a psychologist on my psychological evaluation 2 months after pleading out

Jun 27, 2020, 4:56 PM

Christi McCoy

We used to do banishment's years ago when I was working state courts in the Tupelo area in the 90s. Then there was some sort of "rule" or "policy" that we couldn't use that anymore. Yours was the first I have heard of in a while BUT I haven't done circuit work in years.

Jun 27, 2020, 4:56 PM

Christi McCoy

Who came up with the covenant not to sue? That is a little unusual in my experience. Was that part of the plea negotiations? Like - we will recommend no jail time if you will sign the covenant not to sue? That is definitely an interesting twist. Someone obviously anticipated a suit. I am not sure it is even valid. Honestly, I am not sure that banishment was valid.

Jun 27, 2020, 4:55 PM

I didn't purchase until the 20th and only got because I wanted to protect myself and my family after Liz Crowder sent me messages that she knew of a death threat that was made on me, and how crazy things got overnight

Jun 27, 2020, 5:50 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes they claim on or before May 8 I put the lynchies in fear of their life with the ar-15

Jun 27, 2020, 5:49 PM

Matthew Reardon

Carolyn Bell is behind closed doors with Caleb East for about 10 min before coming out and refusing to let me address the court, to show how the state had absolutely zero evidence because I purchased the gun in question 12 days later. She said I had the right to remain silent which I argued with her twice that I also have the right to speak granted by the first amendment. She gave me a $150,000 bond

Jun 27, 2020, 5:48 PM

Christi McCoy

Was that Memorial Day weekend? Four days is too long - should be less than 2 unless it is a holiday or something and they couldn't find a judge. What was the charge? Is this the stalking of the bar people? The Lynchas?

Jun 27, 2020, 5:47 PM

Christi McCoy

I am not finished listening and reading - so cut to the chase for me - who was behind it and why?

Jun 27, 2020, 5:46 PM

Matthew Reardon

May 26 am arrested. Don't go before a judge until the 30th for a bail hearing

Jun 27, 2020, 5:46 PM

Matthew Reardon

Literally they shot themselves in the foot and I was right there to gather every last piece of evidence that these sinister people were out to frame me and silence me.

Jun 27, 2020, 5:45 PM

Yep. I can't think of a stronger and more compelling case

Jun 27, 2020, 5:44 PM

Christi McCoy

You definitely need to reach out to the county attorney. I think it is David O'Donnell.

To petition the Government for a redress of grievances

Jun 27, 2020, 5:35 PM

Matthew Reardon

And then directly denies all that and says ask the county a few days ago

Jun 27, 2020, 6:07 PM

Matthew Reardon

I served from May 26, 2017 till July 6th 2017. Timmy Pruitt and the county stood to gain from this. This was the 1st part who ultimately sparked the chain reaction>
Jun 27, 2020, 6:06 PM

Christi McCoy

Did I read one of the Horans represented you?
Jun 27, 2020, 6:05 PM

Christi McCoy

Okay - so if she wanted you out of your child's life - that didn't accomplish that. Did you do any jail time? Who else benefited and how?
Jun 27, 2020, 6:05 PM

Matthew Reardon

I think a movie needs to be made about this. What industry connections do you have?
Jun 27, 2020, 6:03 PM

Matthew Reardon

That was Todd
Jun 27, 2020, 6:02 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes

They picked a fight with the wrong person who is capable of yanking that corrupt temple down in a biblical way

Jun 27, 2020, 6:29 PM

Matthew Reardon

To be a trial litigator handling strictly 1983 cases where government agencies screwed over an innocent person

Jun 27, 2020, 6:28 PM

Matthew Reardon

I want to go to law school

Jun 27, 2020, 6:28 PM

Christi McCoy

Still going through ill So much stuff!

Jun 27, 2020, 6:27 PM

Matthew Reardon

Is that not the most obnoxious shit ever?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:12 PM

Lord I need a chart to keep all of this straight.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:11 PM

Christi McCoy

He arrested you for protesting without a permit, right? Did they pursue that?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:11 PM

Matthew Reardon

Hold on and I'll send you what happened

Jun 27, 2020, 6:10 PM

Christi McCoy

Did you file a formal complaint against him? Is that why he was put on leave? Is he still there now?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:10 PM

Matthew Reardon

And the 4th was Liz crowder with Lydia

Jun 27, 2020, 6:10 PM

Matthew Reardon

Third party was the Lynch's and Frank and mariee

Jun 27, 2020, 6:10 PM

Christi McCoy

Honestly I thought he had retired.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:09 PM

Matthew Reardon

Second party of course was the tannahills

Jun 27, 2020, 6:09 PM

Jun 27, 2020, 6:51 PM

Matthew Reardon

So type in Reardon watch in YouTube

Jun 27, 2020, 6:50 PM

Matthew Reardon

I've got another case that I'd love for you to help me with where I'm owed a substantial amount of money

Jun 27, 2020, 6:50 PM

Christi McCoy

Okay, I am sorting through all of this. I understand part of it but I am not getting it all. What was the deal with the Lynches? You and the wife got in a argument and she threw out your food? So they brought charges against you for stalking or something?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:50 PM

Matthew Reardon

So pretty unbelievably believable case based on evidence galore huh?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:49 PM

Christi McCoy

Jun 27, 2020, 6:49 PM

Matthew Reardon

So they "tossed" the charge as part of my plea deal. So that wasn't a deal because honestly I would have loved for Johnny Wayne to rule guilty on that so I could have appealed it up as high as the ms Supreme Court if necessary

Jun 27, 2020, 6:49 PM

After I typed that I realized you would have to pay the fee since it was not interpersonal relationship issues.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:48 PM

Matthew Reardon

I was seeking an emergency injunction

Jun 27, 2020, 6:47 PM

Christi McCoy

I just listened to your interview with Alysse. What happened to that charge? Was that in city court or justice court?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:47 PM

Matthew Reardon

It's not domestic violence though

Jun 27, 2020, 6:47 PM

Christi McCoy

Well, to be honest, we have problems with clerks not telling people that there is no fee. If you file a Domestic Abuse Protection Order - a DAPO - there is no filing fee. Those should start in Justice Court, rather than Chancery. BUT - those are only available between people with interpersonal relationships - family, spouses, former partners, etc. If the person is not in one of those categories you have to file another motion and there is a fee. We are working on having that protection expanded but right now it is not. You mentioned someone causing you to lose your employment - that would likely not qualify. But if it is a family member or former partner - it would.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:47 PM

Matthew Reardon

Hence again the hypocrisy. It's all political

Jun 27, 2020, 6:43 PM

Christi McCoy

Listening to call with judge's law clerk. When was that? There is no filing fee for an order of protection.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:42 PM

This was Brennan Horan who was the attorney

Jun 27, 2020, 7:01 PM

Matthew Reardon

Two days prior to that they attacked my rights by filing an injunction for constitutional protected activity

Jun 27, 2020, 7:00 PM

Matthew Reardon

Well I'd say the answer to that would fall into the details of the call made may 24 that the info is being obstructed

Jun 27, 2020, 7:00 PM

Matthew Reardon

Nothing else has been done in it. No no. Adjudication

Jun 27, 2020, 6:59 PM

Christi McCoy

I know Kevin Horan well but not the other Horans. How was Rhea tied in to the stalking charge?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

Aggravated stalking. Which then got changed to Aggravated cyber stalking. This case was riddled with attorney malpractice as Horan knew Rhea very well and my mother didn't know that when she paid him $7500

Jun 27, 2020, 6:58 PM

Christi McCoy

So okay. What exactly did you plead to? Stalking? Felony? Did you do a non adjudication?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:56 PM

Christi McCoy

Probably good these days. I bet a lot of the local places have taken a huge hit.

Matthew Reardon

Couple years ago

Jun 27, 2020, 6:56 PM

Matthew Reardon

No they sold it

Jun 27, 2020, 6:54 PM

Christi McCoy

Do the Lynchies still have the bar in town?

Jun 27, 2020, 6:54 PM

Christi McCoy

I wish I could help but I am not taking any private cases. I am running the advocacy program.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:54 PM

Matthew Reardon

If fact in one of my drunk streams (which I'll never drink and livestream again because I look so stupid) I break down crying about my daughter being weaponized with the courts and used against me from me not seeing her. I say in that that im not going to go on any type of offensive, that I'm going to do the Christian thing

Jun 27, 2020, 6:54 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes it was a tilt for lat meme war on Facebook. I just had fun with it and played back the same way instead of getting offended.

Jun 27, 2020, 6:52 PM

Matthew Reardon

But the idiots didn't realize that that was a goldmine to me

Jun 27, 2020, 6:51 PM

Matthew Reardon

Christi McCoy

This is probably a dumb question - I am still digesting this. But was the report of the call not in your discovery in the criminal case?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:14 PM

Matthew Reardon

And then he represented her on her 2016 initial custody and restraining order filing. And she was charged with domestic violence at the time which I worked to convince the state to drop

Jun 27, 2020, 7:14 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes so Rhea and my beef started like two years prior

Jun 27, 2020, 7:13 PM

Christi McCoy

I looked at the bar website. Brennan graduated 10 years before Rhea. Now they may be great friends - no clue about that. But they weren't in law school together. So why did Rhea want you in jail? Not because he had represented Liz? Did jail have personal interaction?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:10 PM

Christi McCoy

Yeah - I dare say Joey doesn't have a lot of control over that. I would reach out to the county administrator and then the county attorney.

Jun 27, 2020, 7:09 PM

Matthew Reardon

I have and you heard Joey's response. He's saying ask the county. They by their own admission had 7 days and I have that as well

Jun 27, 2020, 7:07 PM

Christi McCoy

So she says on Jun 11 they are working on response. Two weeks should be plenty time. I would definitely check in Monday.

Jun 27, 2020, 7:07 PM

Don't be too worried about Mississippi lawyers going to school together. We all did. For the most part, Rhea was a class behind me. I don't think Brennan was around then.

Jun 27, 2020, 7:06 PM

Christi McCoy

Well it should make its way to the county attorney but I would give him a call.

Jun 27, 2020, 7:05 PM

Matthew Reardon

I filed it with the county administrator

Jun 27, 2020, 7:05 PM

Matthew Reardon

Well my now wife had a good experience with it with her ex and had recommended him. She just didn't know about his going to school with Rhea and then knowing each other well

Jun 27, 2020, 7:04 PM

Christi McCoy

Okay. So the problem with the Lynchies is tied up in the phone call the SO will not release. Who did you file the FOIA request with?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:04 PM

Christi McCoy

I ask because a lot of times you need someone close to the source. Not always. Like in a PCR - no - don't use anyone around here. But when you have a criminal charge sometimes it helps to have a local person who knows everyone. I don't know Brennan or anything about him.

Jun 27, 2020, 7:03 PM

Christi McCoy

I saw that it was Brennan. I think that is Kevin's brother. Maybe nephew. Kevin is in Grenada. Good guy. Why did you pick Brennan if you don't mind my asking?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:02 PM

They are one of the worst for FOIA. Not as bad as the US Attorney but close.

Kelly Luther was the judge. Mickey Malette the ADA. I am guessing the Lafayette County Sheriff was the charging agency?

Oh. One thing I didn't understand and I may have just missed something. Why was the FBI involved in a state court action? Was it because it was "cyber" and allegedly crossed state lines? Which agent did you deal with?

Jun 28, 2020, 12:15 PM

Matthew Reardon

I do have the transcript. I thought about putting that into the vault but decided not to on second thought. Hold on and I'll get it. The best news is the relevancy to Michael Flynn's case and how the FBI clearly are playing a part. How they knew of my innocence and refused to act and how they refused to comply with the FOIA and hinted at its disappearance

Jun 28, 2020, 12:12 PM

Christi McCoy

I have not seen the information or the plea transcript but I THINK I have gotten through everything else!! Do you have either?

Setting aside a plea is almost impossible, but it can happen. I did it successfully in federal court maybe 12 years ago. Only time I can recall in 25+ years where I was involved.

Jun 28, 2020, 12:10 PM

Christi McCoy

Damning information? About the mayoral election?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:52 PM

Jun 27, 2020, 7:50 PM

Matthew Reardon

Effectively remove me from causing problems and open the road for her to essentially effect into policy unconstitutional laws

Matthew Reardon

The benefit was this. I was silenced from coming forward with damning information. Kept away and silenced for the election and swearing in. Then banished for 5 years while the mayoral term is 4

Jun 27, 2020, 7:49 PM

Matthew Reardon

My attorney said it would take multiple hearings likely to get the bail reduced enough to get out. He told me on the 15th June if I signed off on a permanent restraining order which I wasn't even fully shown that it would get me out easier. Then said on the 6th if I wanted to get out for my daughter and to see her that I should plea out otherwise they would throw the book at me

Jun 27, 2020, 7:47 PM

Christi McCoy

And you may have answered this and I missed it in the thread - what was the benefit to the Tarnehills for you to be charged/convicted?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:43 PM

Christi McCoy

Who was bringing your child into it?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:42 PM

Christi McCoy

What information did you rely on to enter the plea? Did you plead to an information rather than an indictment?

Jun 27, 2020, 7:42 PM

Matthew Reardon

I plead under duress and coercion to information and never indicted. My rights were slaughtered and it took the coordinated effort of my daughter to be held from it for that to happen because I'm too strong willed

Jun 27, 2020, 7:23 PM

Matthew Reardon

A motion of discovery was never done!!! I was never truly afforded due process under color of law!!

Jun 29, 2020, 2:42 PM

Matthew Reardon

Ok, it's just minute. Poor preparing on this one. But realized today is the semi monthly meeting so it's effectively the only one before SDL runs out

Jun 29, 2020, 2:41 PM

Christi McCoy

When I needed coverage I always sent a fax to WTVN/MLOV and the Memphis stations. I think it is WMCTV who comes from Memphis a lot to cover.

Send to the print journalists as well - Jackson FreePress, Clanton Ledger, Commercial Appeal. You can send to William Moore at the Daily Journal but they don't cover the court scene the way they did when Patsy Burnfield was there.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:40 PM

Matthew Reardon

You sent an event link.
<https://www.facebook.com/events/609250709709408/>

Jun 29, 2020, 2:38 PM

Matthew Reardon

I've got to get answers and get to the bottom of this shit with the county board that the sheriff just so happened to invoke Tuesday when confronted.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:36 PM

Matthew Reardon

I need a bunch of news cameras at 5pm

Jun 29, 2020, 2:35 PM

Matthew Reardon

Stoopy and I guess they didn't think I was smart enough to do all that I'm doing in uncovering it all. The only thing they had going was being well banded and "protected" by the government

Jun 28, 2020, 12:35 PM

Yep. This thing has more holes in it than a cheese grater

Jun 28, 2020, 12:34 PM

Christi McCoy

That is your best argument.

Jun 28, 2020, 12:34 PM

Matthew Reardon

I saw my attorney one time for maybe 10 minutes

Jun 28, 2020, 12:33 PM

Matthew Reardon

Which that 302 would show as well as me talking about getting the art15 May 20 to protect me and my family from the threat

Jun 28, 2020, 12:32 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes, it was the sheriff's department that made the arrest. The fbi was involved through me meeting with them the day before my arrest on May 25 2017. Two agents at the field office. To discuss the death threat that Liz sent me, what I felt like was a first amendment violation due to their cheap shot restraining order taken out which essentially barred me from my scheduled speaking June 6th, and information Liz gave me regarding embezzling money from her trust fund

Jun 28, 2020, 12:32 PM

Christi McCoy

He says June 2016. Then Maelle says May. Later they say 2017. But they never corrected that original statement. That is the first thing that jumped out at me.

You were in jail during this entire time. How many times did you see your lawyer?

Jun 28, 2020, 12:20 PM

Christi McCoy

So many new agents in Oxford since I quit doing federal defense work. I probably don't know him/her.

Jun 28, 2020, 12:15 PM

Christi McCoy

Did you sign that at the same time you signed the Information/Waiver of Indictment?

Jun 29, 2020, 4:03 PM

Matthew Reardon

That is true, and even more I only signed off on the permanent restraining order on the tennahills because he told me it would make things quicker and easier with getting out. In fact I never even read the restraining order that was taken out with the claims made or I would have said hell no out of principle because Rhea represented his wife as an attorney and let his emotions completely come out onto the order. Making claims of constitutionally protected activity. It was pathetic. My attorney only gave me the signature page to sign with him

Jun 29, 2020, 3:17 PM

Christi McCoy

If you file your PCR relying on the issue of not being fully advised of the consequences of your actions I don't think you need that. You can file an amended PCR upon the discovery of new evidence. But the lack of knowledge of consequences of your plea is fine without that.

The fact that you still haven't seen the evidence against you adds credibility to that, in my opinion.

Jun 29, 2020, 3:14 PM

Matthew Reardon

So meeting isn't today. Next Monday coincidentally. After my time expires. So I'm trying to line up news interviews and contact the board members for an emergency hearing otherwise it's going to wind up with them being named as defendants being that Joey East made direct reference to "ask the county"

Jun 29, 2020, 3:10 PM

Christi McCoy

Seems like there is some group. Maybe out of Memphis. We hooked up with them. Freelance association of reporters or something. I will have to poke around my files.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:58 PM

Matthew Reardon

Probably calling the journalism school

Jun 29, 2020, 2:50 PM

Not sure how to find them but I know through the years we would see young freelance journalists at trials and such.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:50 PM

Matthew Reardon

Absolutely good idea there Christi

Jun 29, 2020, 2:49 PM

Christi McCoy

Wonder if there are any freelancers around? Maybe from the journalism folks on campus. Those guys are always happy to do whatever it takes for a story. More so than an employee of a corporate entity.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:49 PM

Matthew Reardon

I'll probably have a few hundred watching on a livestream

Jun 29, 2020, 2:48 PM

Matthew Reardon

That's exactly why I need coverage

Jun 29, 2020, 2:47 PM

Christi McCoy

Good luck. You know what they are going to say. Be careful.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:47 PM

Matthew Reardon

It's too late to get put on the agenda. So I'm going to do it the way I did before and invoke my first amendment right to petition the gov't for a redress of grievances especially such a major one as evidence being covered up and withheld with my sol running in less than a week.

Jun 29, 2020, 2:47 PM

Christi McCoy

Christi McCoy

But what was the call? I don't understand how the call is related to the charge by the Lynches.

Jun 29, 2020, 8:52 PM

Matthew Reardon

To be honest with you I believe that the reason the sheriffs department is pulling the county in harms way by not giving details of that call comes to the source of the call likely being someone with some skin in the game. Someone important they want to keep masked. That restraining order was bullshit and you know it was. It's my opinion from everything that I've gathered that the county and sheriffs dept doesn't want the person unmasked because of tremendous implications coming down. Maybe it was stuff discussed also. Why else would they open the county to so much liability in having a judge order it?

Jun 29, 2020, 8:48 PM

Christi McCoy

Question - did the county finally give you those reports from the FOIA? That is progress!

Jun 29, 2020, 8:42 PM

Christi McCoy

I have no idea about anything between you and Rhea. I have known him many years and have never seen anything unethical or even suspicious in his character and his practice. I can tell by the petition that he had concerns about the situation and was worried about Robyn. I gave you my two cents on the PCR but I represent Liz in a criminal case in Olive Branch Municipal Court. I am not involved in any civil aspect between the two of you. I wish the two of you had a better relationship but it is what it is. I didn't do that. Rhea didn't do that. Mona didn't do that. We have to deal with what is brought to us. And never, ever would either of those two engage in the type of behavior you are alleging. I get you are emotional and that a lot has happened. It is easy to blame others or to justify actions. I can say without hesitation that neither Rhea nor Mona is involved in anything unethical. I just do not believe it based on my personal knowledge of them.

Jun 29, 2020, 8:41 PM

Matthew Reardon

I understand all of that and I agree with you. You just have no idea how personal it was to Rhea. I guess both of us. That sorry son of a bitch tried to charge at me swinging while I was shackled in an orange jumpsuit on the initial appearance in chancery court on May 30 when I successfully argued for a continuance. A Sheriff's deputy had to restrain him against the wall. It really takes a low down crazed individual to try to assault a man shackled up like a prisoner at Guantanamo bay

Jun 29, 2020, 8:35 PM

Neither Mona or Rhea would ever do that. I do not have any doubt about that.

Be logical - why would they do that? No competent attorney would ever advise a client to commit a crime and certainly not in your case.

Those reports show a clear pattern of dysfunction between the two of you for years. No way an ethical attorney would give that sort of advice.

Your PCR is much more credible without the conspiracy allegations. That is just my opinion based on everything you have shown me. If you really want to set the plea aside - focus on the facts of your plea and what you knew at the time.

Just my two cents.

Jun 29, 2020, 8:29 PM

Matthew Reardon

If someone like Rhea or Mona played a part in her plan to frame me on the false rape allegation and fake molestation claim a year prior, I won't pursue criminal and civil conspiracy against her and Dustin with her admitting on a Recorded call that he played a big part, so long as I get an actual confession to that happening. It's extremely harmful to the fabric of society if an attorney is giving advice to setup an innocent man in furtherance of a larger plan with a side goal of getting the father out of a child's life and ultimately giving the mother full control. Please check with her to see if she is willing to talk and confess if others were involved in all of this. It's beyond coincidence that a restraining order was filed on take information not only the same days as my two arrests but the same hour. And to take out the May 26th one based on a drone which had already been proven false on these reports. I was arrested and charged on what was clearly a political ploy using a small fraction of the evidence I have of this being what I claim

Jun 29, 2020, 8:25 PM

Christi McCoy

Are you saying your criminal charge is related to Liz wanting to remove you from Lydia's life? I don't think so. I don't think any of those folks would do that. They may have had their own reasons but I don't believe the Sheriff's department or Ben Creekmore's office would fabricate a criminal case as a favor to Liz. I just don't see that.

I think you may have a cause of action based on your inability to completely understand the plea and that you were just doing what your attorney told you to do.

Jun 29, 2020, 8:13 PM

Matthew Reardon

Shockingly those are all filed by Liz over the last several years. 95% of them jaw droppingly fabricated to set the stage for this false narrative they have tried to pin on me since the beginning in a clear attempt to remove me from my daughters life. All of these warrant nothing shy of a court ordered mental health evaluation and quite likely commitment. That is complete recklessness by her and goes along with everything I've been claiming

Matthew Reardon

Yes in a nutshell. Or the call came first and then Todd was advised to come up there

Jun 29, 2020, 9:03 PM

Matthew Reardon

The quid pro quo is that it stood to make Timmy Pruitts and the departments liability go away, make Robyn and Rheas problem go away, make Todd and Ashley Lynch's problem go away, and benefit Liz by way of Lydia since she was closest to me by way of my child's mother and the easiest to help facilitate the twisting of my wrist

Jun 29, 2020, 9:02 PM

Christi McCoy

So you think someone else called and complained about you harrasing/threatening Todd and then Bundren called Todd?

Jun 29, 2020, 9:02 PM

Christi McCoy

Let me read it again closely.

Jun 29, 2020, 9:01 PM

Matthew Reardon

Otherwise why wouldn't they produce it? Why would they allow themselves to come under such heat for it

Jun 29, 2020, 9:01 PM

Matthew Reardon

And either or it would look horrible with the surfacing evidence hence why they are trying to keep it sealed

Jun 29, 2020, 9:00 PM

Matthew Reardon

I think either Robyn or Rhea likely were behind the call made

Jun 29, 2020, 9:00 PM

But - important question - what is the quid pro quo?

Jun 29, 2020, 9:00 PM

Christi McCoy

I can see that as well. It could go either way.

Jun 29, 2020, 8:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes

Jun 29, 2020, 8:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

To me it reads opposite. To me it reads Todd was approached and decided to press charges after the call was made

Jun 29, 2020, 8:59 PM

Christi McCoy

Got it. I had not seen that. It kind of reads like it was Todd Lynch. Are you thinking it was someone other than the Lynches that was pointing out the Facebook stuff?

Jun 29, 2020, 8:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

It's got quid pro quo written all over it and if they would comply in producing what I have steadily asked for it would very likely fully prove everything I've been claiming based on all evidence gathered

Jun 29, 2020, 8:58 PM

Matthew Reardon

It has literally EVERYTHING per their own admission to do with the Lynches

Jun 29, 2020, 8:57 PM

Matthew Reardon

I'll show you hold on a sec

Yes that is correct. Continued supervised visitation for 20 min every two weeks when I got out even though I never did a single thing they claimed! The courts turned into a political weapon. Turned my daughter into a political weapon

Jun 29, 2020, 10:52 PM

Christi McCoy

Looking at the chancery docket. Y'all went to court on the 9th and came up with an agreed order - as far as custody/support. So you went to jail on the 26th and were there til July when you entered your plea in circuit, right?

Jun 29, 2020, 9:30 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes. Within an hour and then did a victory walk around the square walking from the sheriff's department with my state flag lol

Jun 29, 2020, 9:28 PM

Christi McCoy

But when you were arrested on the 1st - did you bond out?

Jun 29, 2020, 9:27 PM

Matthew Reardon

Both of those days Mona initiated civil actions and filed emergency restraining orders claiming erroneous false claims on behalf of Liz WITHIN the same hour as my arrest. What a coincidence

Jun 29, 2020, 9:24 PM

Matthew Reardon

Timmy arrested me the 1st and I was hunted down like prey on the 26th on the square as a publicity stunt

Jun 29, 2020, 9:22 PM

Matthew Reardon

The 26th

Jun 29, 2020, 9:22 PM

The call to the SO about Todd came in on the 24th. When did you go to jail?
Jun 29, 2020, 9:22 PM

Matthew Reardon

These actors gave me a great book to write and quille possibly a movie

Jun 29, 2020, 9:21 PM

Matthew Reardon

The May 26 restraining order and bullshit "contempt" accusation for flying a drone which was disproven by the multiple police reports called in by her I sent you earlier taken out by Mona and Liz set a court date in June while I was locked up

Jun 29, 2020, 9:20 PM

Christi McCoy

So they brought you to chancery from the jail? Did you see the judge or was it all agreed upon?

Jun 29, 2020, 9:17 PM

Matthew Reardon

I'm glad you are playing devils advocate because I want to be deposed. First of all, the sham restraining order would have NEVER stood had I been out and came prepared to argue and defeat it. Especially if I saw the bullshit Rhea put in there. It makes Judge Alderson look bad as a judge for clearly not reading it and taking Rhea at his word. As far as Timmy, his problem and ultimately the departments went away if their accuser went away. So in the grand scheme if they worked it to where I signed a covenant to not sue and they dropped the sham charge from May 1st then ultimately they save face because their problem and it's recourse went away. As far as Liz, while I was still in jail they brought me before the chancery judge to take out a withholding order against my residual for $600 a month. So SentText Solutions withholds that money and sends it to her every month. So she wouldn't lose financially at all. In fact she fairs much better having me out of the picture. And just like that, I will have no problem convincing a jury of the exact same things

Jun 29, 2020, 9:15 PM

Christi McCoy

How? Start with Pruitt. You say it was a bad arrest. So how would getting Todd to press charges against you help that situation? Same with Robyn and Rhea. Didn't they have a permanent restraining order? Why would they care about Todd pressing charges? And Liz would not benefit - if you go to jail that cuts off any child support and it does not cut off your visitation rights. Devil's advocate - you need to be prepared to answer these questions if you go that route. Do you know if the audio of the call actually exists?

Christi McCoy

I worked with some documentary folks. Hudson Hickman is a producer I have worked with. Melame Addington directed the only documentary I worked on.

I have had some clients self published their books. I think it is easier to do than it used to be.
Jun 29, 2020, 11:32 PM

Matthew Reardon

I mean I know you have helped connect people with the right people on publishing deals, rights to life story, etc. And while I wouldn't want to relinquish all rights to my story, I would likely explore a publishing deal or production deal.

Jun 29, 2020, 11:31 PM

Christi McCoy

What do you mean?

Jun 29, 2020, 11:26 PM

Matthew Reardon

Who have you worked with if it isn't book publishers?

Jun 29, 2020, 11:09 PM

Christi McCoy

That sort of report will be extremely helpful. Make sure the report mentions that your stress could cause you not to be able to process the consequences of your actions. Stick to the basics and leave out any fluff.

No clue on publishers. Never worked with any book publications.

Jun 29, 2020, 11:06 PM

Matthew Reardon

I've even got a psychological report stating I took the plea under coercion and stress due to my daughter. It's a knock down drag out case and I've got to say I'm highly looking forward to it. It's going to be biblical

Jun 29, 2020, 11:02 PM

Matthew Reardon

Jun 29, 2020, 11:00 PM

Matthew Reardon

8th, 14th, 1st, and quite possibly 9th

Jun 29, 2020, 10:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes 1983

Jun 29, 2020, 10:59 PM

Matthew Reardon

You'd be all over this like a bitch in heat if you were representing me on this and you know you would if there wasn't any type of conflict of interest. I've presented every element and I feel like I could persuade any jury of everything that happened before, during, and after amounting in a vacation of plea and an astronomical recovery with all the obstruction and the million piece splintering they sent through this area and surrounding areas causing permanent damages

Jun 29, 2020, 10:58 PM

Christi McCoy

I saw the withholding order in the docket. That is not unusual. It happens in every case unless parties agree in writing not to do a withholding order.

What kind of jury trial? Civil rights violation?

Jun 29, 2020, 10:56 PM

Matthew Reardon

And somewhere around a couple weeks prior to my plea they took out a withholding order which was sent to the source of my residual income. Sent text solutions

Jun 29, 2020, 10:54 PM

Matthew Reardon

That's why it's so personal and I won't settle out with these bastards. I'm going all the way to jury trial. I refuse to sell my soul to the devil a second time because of all they did

Press conference being called for this afternoon to announce the grotesque details of likely the largest corruption ring and cover up by Lafayette County, their attorney, and state officials

Jul 1, 2020, 12:17 PM

Matthew Reardon

Sounds good. Thank you for all the wise and gainful advice on the matter. This city Unrightfully demonized me. I've never been the person they made me out to be. I've tried to be more of a unifier. Always well before their fanning of me and to this day said that I'd never go on the offensive to cause harm, strictly defensive in protecting myself, my family, and innocent bystanders. They sent millions of splinter cells through the area and surrounding areas that can never be fixed. Permanent lifelong damages. So they deserve a stinging lesson and to be served for destroying my life and ability to properly protect myself and my family

Jun 30, 2020, 6:40 PM

Christi McCoy

I have no judgment of you at all. Please know that I am not in the custody dispute. The lack of discovery is soooo troubling to me. I rarely advised a client to sign a waiver of indictment but if I did you can bet they had seen all the discovery. 1983 work is exciting and heart breaking at the same

<https://www.ridingwiththelaw.com/>

Jun 30, 2020, 6:22 PM

Matthew Reardon

At least we can both find mutual respect and common middle ground. You've been a lot of help to me because I wanted a subjective deposition. And I'm sorry about the crass language. It wasn't directed at you, it was just a figure of speech and I could have found and used better figures of speech there. I totally get you on the selectiveness. I'm going to go to law school upon successfully overturning this to be a trial litigator specializing in 1983 cases and the cases I take on will be extremely selective with few and far between. You have to be completely sold on it to put your best foot forward. Personally I feel that if I use one reason only for my not being that I wasn't fully advised, I think I'll crash and burn. I've got a lot of legal knowledge which has shown in the project that I'm doing. There were many factors involved. My attorney not doing a discovery request, failing to inform me of the habeas filing nor fulfilling it when it was granted, the state withholding evidence and getting a plea under duress and coercion, and the introduction of new evidence. Being I have one chance only here, I feel I'll have much greater success in attacking the multiple attack angles instead of one and one only as far as the PCR goes

Jun 30, 2020, 6:19 PM

Christi McCoy

I wish you the best of luck.

I have no desire to argue with you or anyone else unless I am in a courtroom. But I have to clarify a statement you made - I would not be all over this case. I won't use the crass language you used but I would not. I have been very selective in what 1983 cases I file and this is not one I would file under my name based on what I know at this point.

You may have a decent PCR - I can't tell for sure based on what I know. But I can tell you that your best bet with PCR relief is to stick with the facts and don't muddy the waters.

Goicha. Yeah Riding with the Outlaw started out as a podcast envisioned. Then transitioned to video production and a mine of data collected. I'm currently working on putting all my footage together and creating a documentary of everything. I've got to go film the intro of it tomorrow where everything started. Hoping to have everything good to go and mixed down by Friday was going to get bad if I ever got traction on this and sank my teeth fully into this scandal. Especially from his horrible treatment of me. I made it clear I wouldn't forget it and would rip the trellises out of that corrupt temple

Jul 1, 2020, 8:34 PM

Christi McCoy

What is Scott's role?

Jul 1, 2020, 8:30 PM

Matthew Reardon

It would have done him much better to have stayed retired

Jul 1, 2020, 8:29 PM

Christi McCoy

Also - Liz is not under indictment. She is charged with a misdemeanor.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:29 PM

Christi McCoy

Scott retired and worked as a CSO for the federal courthouse a while. I think he came back when Joey became sheriff.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:28 PM

Matthew Reardon

No surprisingly he never retired. Now Scott mills retired but mysteriously came back sometime before I came back. I'm not suing Timmy because he learned his place and stayed out of my way and didn't want me or obstruct in any way. The publicity he got back then was enough I felt. And the covenant to not sue was originally drawn up to shield the county from the Timmy saga

Jul 1, 2020, 8:27 PM

Christi McCoy

I thought Timmy retired a while back. No? So did you make a complaint against him? Was that part of the covenant not to sue?

Jul 1, 2020, 8:23 PM

I listened to part of it. Will try and finish it. Just be careful with your 1983 litigation. The Court won't hold you to the standard of an attorney but they will make you follow rules. Only state actors can be legit defendants in a 1983 lawsuit. You want to be careful with that. Our district judges are all great - but some of them are harsher than others when it comes to pro se filings.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:22 PM

Matthew Reardon

Timmy took time away however it was officially classified. It was a fishing vacation for him

Jul 1, 2020, 8:22 PM

Matthew Reardon

Then of course you hear the garfed off bullshit response by the county administrator. I'm not naming her in the lawsuit because I know that call fell back on the county specifically the county attorney

Jul 1, 2020, 8:20 PM

Matthew Reardon

I'll send you the recording of O'Donnell yesterday at 4pm. Give me a minute on the other questions. Just getting back to my car. That 15 min livestream was epic and layed out everything perfectly

Jul 1, 2020, 8:12 PM

Christi McCoy

What did O'Donnell say? He is straight up. He and I are always on opposite sides but he is a good lawyer and trustworthy.

Also - I meant to ask you - are you sure a 302 was created by the FBI in 2017?

Trying to get it all straight in my mind. Pruitt arrested you first. And he was suspended over it? Or put on leave? What happened with that? Was it disorderly conduct? Was that the charge?

Jul 1, 2020, 8:10 PM

Matthew Reardon

Made official as of 7/1/2020 in providing the facts one by one of the story of my framing and subsequent publishing of Riding with the outlaw that all attempts at convincing the county to give up its corrupt ways and cooperate have fallen through. Parties are now put on notice of impending legal action being taken by way of State action being filed in circuit court and 1983 civil rights federal lawsuit being filed in the northern district naming at least 10 defendants to include Lafayette County Sheriff Joey East, Oxford Mayor Robyn Tannehill and husband Rhea Tannehill, Attorney Brennan Horan, Scott Mills, Alan Wilburn, Jared Bunden, Caleb East, Phyllis "Liz" Crowder, Lafayette

Jul 1, 2020, 9:06 PM

Christi McCoy

From today? I watched a little bit. Will try and watch the rest of it. I listened to the David recording. David is one of the good guys when it comes to attorneys representing governmental agencies. I can tell you without hesitation he would never lie or obstruct justice. If he said there is no recording - I believe him.

One reason I wondered if there was a recording is the report does not state where the call came in. Did it come to the SO switchboard or his cell? It isn't clear.

Jul 1, 2020, 9:02 PM

Matthew Reardon

Did you watch any of my live-streamed press conference? Of just me? Lol. I should have done like I've done in the past and pretended the media was there asking questions—the questions I wanted to be asked since they were to cowardly to show up themselves

Jul 1, 2020, 9:00 PM

Christi McCoy

Ha! No arguing.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:57 PM

Matthew Reardon

I wanted to win one legal argument with you on principle that I felt you had to end up agreeing on anyways. Lol

Jul 1, 2020, 8:55 PM

Christi McCoy

Ha! I am a Faulkner fan so run on sentences do not bother me.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:55 PM

Matthew Reardon

Sorry about the ridiculous run on sentence. I just realized that was ONE damn sentence!!! Lol

Jul 1, 2020, 8:54 PM

Of course. No parent is allowed to unilaterally change visitation without justification. Absolutely.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:50 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes and surely you know that a willful refusal to let me see or talk to my child for 5 months time meanwhile I've complied on everything and not behind on child support, been the victim of many false reports filed by her proven false, and I have two police reports from different dates where she advises sheriffs deputies that cps told her I couldn't see Lydia as I was under investigation, PLUS two recordings speaking to cps where they flat out say she is lying and that the reports by her have been closed out as less spells disaster in a custody case especially given that I can factually prove now that I was framed not to mention the timing of her false reports coincides with the dates which can directly tie her into this with motive

Jul 1, 2020, 8:47 PM

Christi McCoy

I noticed David confirmed there is no recording. I suspected that.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:43 PM

Christi McCoy

As I told you - I am not involved in anything related to the issues with Y'all's child. But surely you know that visitation is not tied to child support. The two are completely separate issues. One does not depend on the other.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:41 PM

Matthew Reardon

I am a great father and it's adding weight on more and more each day with me not seeing my child or talking to her

Jul 1, 2020, 8:40 PM

Matthew Reardon

I hope Liz is fully advised and knows the disastrous legal outcome this all is going to spell out for her by her willful and contempt of the judges visitation schedule especially in light of her getting a majority of my residual income every month and all the false reports I've unearthed.

Jul 1, 2020, 8:39 PM

Matthew Reardon

Christi McCoy

If you file a federal lawsuit the discovery is different than state court. The parties have to produce pre discovery disclosure before any other discovery can be done. The policies/procedures handbook will probably be in there.

Jul 1, 2020, 9:52 PM

Matthew Reardon

Well I'm done talking to any of them until after suit is filed and then it's going to be done by procedure. Their window of opportunity closed today. I wouldn't even talk to David outside of a courtroom at this point. He had his opportunity and knew how serious this was. But I will definitely request that as one of the first things. Take that back...I'll subpoena it. Asking for compliance got me nowhere and wasted my time

Jul 1, 2020, 9:46 PM

Christi McCoy

Get the policy and procedures of Lafayette SO. It should dictate when and how reports are compiled. Feds have a much more rigid policy but LCSC has to have SOMESort of policy.

Jul 1, 2020, 9:37 PM

Matthew Reardon

This is my huge issue I've been stressing. There HAS to be an initial report! And it HAS to detail the initial report/complaint otherwise it's sham and I feel like I could argue it tossed based on that alone

Jul 1, 2020, 9:35 PM

Matthew Reardon

Like it was created on demand to help justify a $150K bond 😏

Jul 1, 2020, 9:34 PM

Matthew Reardon

Yes the report was typed on 5/30. The same day as my bond hearing. And that report was a start to end narrative. Seemed fictitious to me.

Jul 1, 2020, 9:34 PM

Christi McCoy

That's not being thorough. Can't remember if ever seen what it was. Sorry. I'll look into it.

Jul 1, 2020, 9:30 PM

Matthew Reardon

No outside of what I already received. That report Bunden did was from 5/30. An officer can't be expected to remember every detail 6 days later to log. Meaning there was an initial report more fine tuned to the interaction on the call. More detailed about what the call was about, who it was, etc. and if not I cry foul even louder

Jul 1, 2020, 9:21 PM

Christi McCoy

He said there was one page associated with the request, right? I look that to be Bunden's report.

Jul 1, 2020, 9:18 PM

Matthew Reardon

If they truly cared they would have upheld the thin blue line motto of protect and serve, not obstruct and destroy. They would have truly been out in the interest of justice. But that wasn't their end goal. The corrupt actors have to be tossed in order to protect the good ones. And the trickle down corruption plaguing everything around here and other places won't stop until it's harshly put in check and the people at the top topple

Jul 1, 2020, 9:16 PM

Matthew Reardon

And of course I have to attack every angle of weakness and opportunity else I'm doing myself an injustice

Jul 1, 2020, 9:08 PM

Matthew Reardon

I'm sure he's a great guy. Probably a great attorney. But he just tossed the county headfirst into a freestorm with that call days prior to my SOL running

Jul 1, 2020, 9:07 PM

Matthew Reardon

Well it is more concerning if it was a cell call. So that's the first thing. That would incline me to believe it was personal favors. Secondly, there is still a call log. Phone records. Even without a recorded call somebody called him at the sheriffs department. And pay phones aren't used anymore

I did not add you as a friend. I am not sure what happened.

I am not going to argue with you about Liz or anything else. I was simply trying to save you a lot of trouble if you name a non state actor in a 1983 cause of action.

I am not aware of any chancey cause of action between the two of you. Therefore I am not discussing any issues related thereto.

I simply brought up the issue of the 1983 litigation because you stated you were going to name a number of people who are not proper defendants. That was for your benefit, not mine and certainly not Liz's. I would say the same to anyone who was contemplating filing a 1983 cause of action.

Have a safe 4th of July.

Jul 3, 2020, 1:03 PM

Matthew Reardon

Not to mention, your dealings with Liz per your own admission is with the false report charge only. Which is why everytime I bring up the fact that my daughter is being immorally and unlawfully kept from me in defiance of a judges order you tell me you only represent her on the olive branch charge. So if you would be remiss to your client by not informing me of what you just did, then you would also be remiss to your client in not advising her that she is acting in an unlawful and immoral way which can only and will only result in disastrous legal consequences with her ultimately losing custody of the child due to her willful and malicious behavior. The only defense I can see to it is her claiming mental instability, which would hit the nail on the head, however would ultimately wind up with the same conclusion I just stated in her being defeated on a another contempt complaint and custodial challenge. Is that something that she is ready for and is that something you are prepared to represent her on?

Jul 3, 2020, 12:39 AM

Matthew Reardon

Did you really add me as a Facebook friend and then delete me just like that within 24 hours? Did that really just happen?

Jul 3, 2020, 12:22 AM

Matthew Reardon

I will be filing anything and everything I can that is available to file against LZ. She is filled with nothing but pure evil, manipulation, and is clearly mentally unstable. I say that with 100% absolute certainty and conviction. She may not fall under a 1983 tort but you better believe I will bring any and all intentional tort litigation against her as she has done nothing but create complete havoc and never ceased to take my kindness for weakness. How are you even able to represent her given the intentional nature of her actions and proven elements through text message and recorded calls? I can't see anyway victim assistance funding would apply to her. There is such a hypocritical double standard going on here

Jul 3, 2020, 12:16 AM

Hey Matt. Hale to hear the press did not respond. As I have told you - I have no judgment and I wish you the best in your efforts at PCR. I want to remind you again that a person can only be a 1983 defendant if they were a state actor at the time of the offense. Several people you name are not state actors. As you know, I represent Liz in the Olive Branch matter and I do not represent her in any pending custody/visitation matter. However, I feel I need to advise you that if you name Liz as a 1983 defendant she will seek any and all remedies available to her. She is simply not a part of any alleged conspirator and she is a private citizen. Any potential action against her would arise from a state court tort action, specifically an intentional tort. You have not listened any negligence by Liz only alleged intentional acts. Again, I wish you the best of luck in the PCR and/or any 1983 cause of action. I would be remiss in my duty to Liz if I did not bring this up with you. Good luck.

There is room at the table for everyone as long as respect is truly practiced.

Not to be a naysayer but understand everyone who gets 5 years or more in prison files a PCR. And some who get less. A lot of circuits have a pro se law clerk who handles the PCR filings because there are so many. So understand that the court system sees these all day every day.

They will go back to the transcript and look for errors. The issue with the date is a non issue YOU knew when you bought the gun. Why didn't you bring it up then? Who came up with the May 8th date?

The lack of ability to review discovery and the very limited contact with your atty while in custody are favorable to your case.

But everybody says - my lawyer told me to sign so I did. What movie is it where the guy in prison says "we are all innocent - got screwed by the lawyer". Is that Shawshank? My point is that you have to really go into detail and make sure you have the number of days in custody and the number of lawyer visits and the length of the visits. Press that. Not seeing discovery is something that should get their attention.

Jul 6, 2020, 9:29 PM

Matthew Reardon

Well my argument is complicatedly simple. I had incompetent council and was never made aware that a habeas motion was made on 6/8 and approved on 6/8 to proceed forma pauperis. I've unearthed so much to back my innocence and the only way I could get out to parent and effectively do anything about this bullet ridden case was to plea when my attorney made it sound and feel like there were no other options. I feel like there couldn't be anymore evidence and clarity that I am innocent than the fact that the weapon in question wasn't even purchased until 12 days after they asserted that I had it in my possession. And if the lower court wants to make this area look even dumber and worse then I would suggest they kick it back so I can send it to the Supreme Court

Jul 6, 2020, 9:08 PM

Christi McCoy

Don't count on it. Trial courts very rarely give evidentiary hearings.

The court may request a briefing schedule if the new evidence is not clearly spelled out. The judge might ask you to submit your evidence via affidavit if he thinks it is warranted.

What is your evidence that could not have been known on the day of the plea? Be sure and put that in there clearly.

Jul 6, 2020, 8:52 PM

Matthew Reardon

There is no reason I wouldn't get a hearing though. Evidence hasn't been presented so they won't just vacate it without an evidentiary hearing. Hopefully they want to discuss settlements after this

Jul 6, 2020, 8:45 PM

Matthew Reardon

I need to make some adjustments. Clerical errors. And style myself as the defendant and them as prosecution. That way it's filed as a motion and I'm not opening a new civil action with a new filing fee

Jul 6, 2020, 8:43 PM

Matthew Reardon

It's styled wrong

Jul 6, 2020, 8:42 PM

Hey Matt. Trying to catch up. So did the county say they have a document that is not subject to production or did they say they gave you everything? With regard to the phone call? I was confused on that.

Don't want to send it to her directly. I'd rather lick a stop sign in sub zero temperatures. I understand you can't officially accept it on her behalf, however I'm not by any means required to send it either. Contemplating that degree is what it is and no formality in sending a legal demand honestly will help me any more, although the fact alone that I send it looks favorable. And no judge in their right mind would blame me for not wanting to mail something to her, because she'd probably claim it was a "nice" letter given her track history of overdramatized lies and false reporting of crimes. I just figured you could at least skim over it and possibly summarize it to her the next time you and her talk if that is before the time clock expires. I'm interested to see how she is going to be defended and portrayed as a victim in this scam she pulled. Especially with recorded admissions and proof via text. I have never nor could I ever be cruel like that and especially randomly out of the blue. I'll play nice so long as I'm not abruptly attacked and there isn't some low blow attack to unfairly try to demonize me when I've done absolutely nothing wrong. So long as that fine line isn't crossed we are good. But if that line is crossed and part of or all of the defense is to demonize me then it will constitute the piercing of the veil.

Btw, I'm filing suit against the FBI both locally and their Headquarters in Virginia tomorrow :). I have no fear when it comes to good vs evil. There are huge ethics and morality issues needing to be addressed and fixed with that corrupt organization

Right, but I am not trying to send anything to her, make any contact with her, etc because God knows she would spin it around. Hell the proof is in the pudding with that with all the bogus police reports she filed when I was nowhere even within the vicinity of her or Lafayette county for that matter. So this is a document I want to go to her attorney's hands. And being that you are the only one listed for her right now, I'll just get it over to you. Is 1739 university Ave still a good address?

Aug 3, 2020, 9:44 PM

Christi McCoy

You need to go by whatever address is on file with the chancery clerk.

Aug 3, 2020, 9:25 PM

Matthew Reardon

I hope you and her both realize that that last minute dodging maneuver to kick the can down the road further will not sway the outcome because the solid evidence isn't going to change. But what it did do was exacerbate the major issue by allowing another month's worth of publicity from more people watching the Lafayette county scandal to now also latch on to this. What address can I send a 7 day legal demand letter to demanding her immediate compliance on the child visitation agreement? Because I'm going to make it crystal clear in the demand letter that exactly 7 days from tomorrow I will be filing suit against her for civil conspiracy, abuse of process, and any other intentional/negligence tort I can find that applies to everything

General Affidavit
STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Olive Branch Municipal Court

Incident No: 2019004743

Personally appeared before me, Kim Wade DCC of the Olive Branch Municipal Court, Ashley I Holladay who makes oath that on or about the 29 day of November, 20 18 within the corporate limits of said city and in the jurisdiction of the Court.

Phyllis Crowder did WILLFULLY, UNLAWFULLY AND KNOWINGLY REPORT A CRIME, (1) OR ANY ELEMENT OF A CRIME TO A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER, BY ANY MEANS, KNOWING THAT SUCH REPORT WAS FALSE. To Wit: On 11/29/2018 at approximately 1550, officers were dispatched to 4250 Bethel Rd (Olive Branch Methodist Hospital) in reference to a physical assault. Upon arrival officers spoke with Phyllis Crowder (MS DL:) who appeared to be distraught. Crowder reported (R&I 2018038694) that on 11/25/2018 between the approximate hours of 0100-0345, her ex-boyfriend and father of her child, Matthew Reardon sexually assaulted her at his residence of 7677 Alexander Crossing Cir. Crowder stated in her report that Reardon grabbed her by her clothing while in the kitchen in an attempt to have sex with her, but she consistently told him to stop. Crowder stated Reardon then forcibly grabbed her by the hair, drug her to his bedroom, pushed her onto his bed, and inserted both his penis and a sex toy into her vagina without her consent. On 11/30/2018 at approximately 1300, I, Det. Holladay, met with Crowder and her husband at OBPD. Crowder came to my office, and Crowder gave me details of the incident. During our conversation, Crowder stated the sexual intercourse was not consensual. On 12/13/2018 at 1224, I read Miranda and interviewed Reardon at OBPD. Reardon stated he and Crowder had text and planned all weekend for her to come to his residence for them to have sexual intercourse. Reardon stated Crowder did come to his residence, and they had consensual sex. Reardon then gave me printed out screenshots of text conversations between him and Crowder for the weekend in question. Reardon stated he would bring the phone to OBPD on 12/17/2018 for us to download its contents. On 12/18/2018 at 1216, Reardon brought his cell phone to OBPD, and I took possession of it. I obtained a search warrant for Reardon's cell phone, and the cell phone was later downloaded. The downloaded information matched the printed texts Reardon had previously provided and supported Reardon's claims that this was a consensual sexual encounter. Based on the evidence, I found the allegation of rape to be a false report intentionally filed by Crowder. This incident did occur within the city limits of Olive Branch, Desoto County, Mississippi.

TO WIT: FALSE REPORTING OF CRIME

This in the Olive Branch Municipal Court in the State of Mississippi. Against the peace and dignity of the State of Mississippi and contrary to the Ordinances of said city in such cases made and provided, and the good order and peace thereof.

CAUSE NUMBER S2020-0024(CD)

PHYLLIS CROWDER, DEFENDANT

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This matter is before the Court on the de novo appeal filed in this matter on November 19, 2020. Having reviewed the case file and considered the relevant case law and court rules, the Court, acting sua sponte, finds as follows:

On November 19, 2020, Defendant filed her de novo appeal of a conviction rendered in the Municipal Court of Olive Branch, Mississippi on September 22, 2020 for 'False Reporting of a Crime'. Attached to Defendant's Notice of Appeal is correspondence with the lower court's clerk indicating that Defendant did not actually receive a copy of the judgment until it was transmitted by email on October 6, 2020.

Mississippi Rule of Criminal Procedure 29.1(a) states in relevant part:

Any person adjudged guilty of a criminal offense by a justice or municipal court may appeal to county court or, if there is no county court, to circuit court, by filing simultaneously a written notice of appeal, and both a cost bond and an appearance bond (or cash deposit), as provided in Rules 29.3(a) and 29.4(a), with the clerk of the circuit court having jurisdiction within thirty (30) days of such judgment.

Even giving the Defendant the benefit of the doubt that the lower court may have rendered judgment under advisement at a date later than the trial and judgment date of September 22, 2020, the time period for filing the appeal lapsed on November 5, 2020. That was the thirtieth (30th) day after the judgment. Defendant's appeal is two weeks late.

CLERK
DESOTO COUNTY, MS

NOV 23 2020

Will H. Thompson
CLERK COURT CLERK

pg 115334

M.R.Cr.P 29.1(c) provides a mechanism for curing the content of a defective notice of appeal. However, Defendant's oversight is a defect that cannot be cured. The failure to timely file the Notice of Appeal pursuant to M.R.Cr.P. 29.1(a) leaves this Court without jurisdiction to entertain the appeal.

The comments to the above-referenced rule, which mirrors its predecessor, UCCCR 12.02, are also instructive:

Section (a) requires the notice of appeal to be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within thirty (30) days of entry of the judgment appealed from. See Murray v. State, 870 So.2d 1182, 1184 (Miss. 2004) (holding the thirty (30) day deadline in procedural rule governs over conflicting statute). Under section (a), and unlike Rule 4(e) of the Mississippi Rules of Appellate Procedure, pending post-trial motions do not extend the time for taking an appeal; nor is the time for filing a notice of appeal extended if the lower court judge stays execution of the judgment. Section (c) requires that the lower court be promptly notified of any dismissal, so that execution of its judgment may proceed.

This Court agrees with Justice Graves who stated in the Murray case: "Although this Court has no choice but to hold that Murray's filing is untimely, it is troubling that such an unfortunate result must obtain." Id. at 1184.

Accordingly, the appeal filed herein should be, and same is hereby, dismissed and the case is returned to the docket of the Municipal Court of Olive Branch Mississippi, for execution of the judgment rendered in this matter.

SO ORDERED, this the 23rd day of November, 2020.

On 11/29/2018 at approximately 1550, officers were dispatched to 4250 Bethel Rd (Olive Branch Methodist Hospital) in reference to a physical assault. Upon arrival officers spoke with Phyllis Crowder (MS DL: who appeared to be distraught. Crowder reported (R&I 2018038694) that on 11/25/2018 between the approximate hours of 0100-0345, her ex-boyfriend and father of her child, Matthew Reardon sexually assaulted her at his residence of 7677 Alexander Crossing Cir. Crowder stated in her report that Reardon grabbed her by her clothing while in the kitchen in an attempt to have sex with her, but she consistently told him to stop. Crowder stated Reardon then forcibly grabbed her by the hair, drug her to his bedroom, pushed her onto his bed, and inserted both his penis and a sex toy into her vagina without her consent. Crowder stated when Reardon fell asleep on the couch, she took photographs of the inside of the residence, took her daughter, left the residence, and went to her residence in Oxford, MS.

On 11/30/2018 at 1300, I, Det. Holladay, met with Crowder and her husband at OBPD. Crowder came to my office and we spoke regarding the incident. Crowder stated during the incident, she voluntarily removed her own clothing, and during the sexual assault she kept her hands above her head due to Reardon instructing her not to touch herself or him. Crowder stated during the incident, their four year old daughter came downstairs, and Crowder asked Reardon to close the door so their daughter would not see. Crowder stated Reardon got up and closed the bedroom door. Crowder admitted to performing oral sex on Reardon, "to get him back right." Crowder stated what she meant by that was she gave him oral sex until he was fully erect again. Crowder stated Reardon penetrated her vaginally again with his penis and a vibrator, and Reardon also penetrated her anally with a vibrator. Crowder stated this continued until Reardon ejaculated inside of her vagina. Crowder stated during the incident, Reardon asked repeatedly to record it, but Crowder stated she told him no. Crowder stated Reardon did not record the incident. Crowder stated after the incident she left Reardon's residence by herself, went to McDonald's, got something to eat, and returned to Reardon's residence. Crowder stated while she was in her vehicle, she had a phone conversation with her husband, but she did not tell him about the sexual assault that had just occurred. Crowder stated when she got back to Reardon's residence, she and Reardon sat in the living room while she ate. Crowder stated when Reardon fell asleep, she gathered her daughter's belongings, took pictures of the residence's living conditions, got her daughter, and they left Reardon's residence. Crowder stated the sexual interaction between she and Reardon was not consensual.

On 12/13/2018 at 1224, I read Miranda and Interviewed Reardon at OBPD. Reardon stated he and Crowder had text and planned all weekend for her to come to his residence for them to have sexual intercourse. Reardon stated Crowder did come to his residence, and they had consensual sex. Reardon then gave me printed out screenshots of text conversations between he and Crowder for the weekend in question. Reardon stated he would bring the phone to OBPD on 12/17/2018 for us to download it's contents.

On 12/18/2018 at 1216, Reardon brought his cell phone to OBPD, and I took possession of it. I obtained a search warrant for Reardon's cell phone. Reardon's cell phone was later downloaded. The downloaded information matched the printed texts Reardon had previously provided and supported Reardon's claims that this was a consensual sexual encounter. Based on the evidence, I found the allegation of rape to be a false report intentionally filed by Crowder.
